

|  |                   |                                                                                                                                                         |
|--|-------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object:           | Bad Urach - Wasserfall                                                                                                                                  |
|  | Museum:           | Haus der Geschichte Baden-WürttembergKonrad-Adenauer-Straße 1670173 Stuttgartbildanfrage@hdgbw.de |
|  | Collection:       | Postkartenverlag Gebrüder Metz                                                                                                                          |
|  | Inventory number: | 1991/0140/017743                                                                                                                                        |

Description

Blick auf den Bad Uracher Wasserfall.

Basic data

|                     |                            |
|---------------------|----------------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Glasnegativ / Fotografie   |
| Measurements:       | Höhe: 21 cm, Breite: 14 cm |

Events

|                            |       |                        |
|----------------------------|-------|------------------------|
| Image taken                | When  | September 1905         |
|                            | Who   | Gebrüder Metz          |
|                            | Where | Wasserfall (Bad Urach) |
| [Relationship to location] | When  |                        |
|                            | Who   |                        |
|                            | Where | Bad Urach              |

Keywords

- Photography
- Waterfall